NTNU's Carbon Neutral Claim

National Taiwan Normal University (NTNU) recognizes that a university has to play an essential role in the evolution of human civilization and promises to be carbon-neutral by 2048 in response to Taiwan's 2050 Zero Emission policy and UN 2030 Agenda – Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). In addition to continuing to cultivate talents and develop research, the university will fulfill social responsibilities and increase impacts. NTNU aims to reduce carbon emissions by 50% by 2030 and achieve complete carbon neutrality by 2048 through net-zero green life, energy efficiency, low-carbon emission electricity, and green energy.
